

INVASIVE PLANTS: MONITORING, MANAGING, & USING ALTERNATIVES

An OIPC Workshop Hosted by Greenacres Foundation
Spooky Hollow Farm
8500 Spooky Hollow Road, Indian Hills
Tuesday, August 8, 2023
10:00am-3:30pm

AGENDA

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| 9:30am | Registration & refreshments |
| 10:00 - 10:45am | Introduction to Greenacres: our approach to invasive species and eco-monitoring , Jennifer Mansfield, Greenacres Ecology Research Specialist |
| 10:45 - 11:30am | Introduction to OIPC: invasive plants & controls, assessment protocol, and alternatives , Jennifer Windus, OIPC President |
| 11:30 – 11:45am | Break |
| 11:45 - 12:30pm | Focus on the Resource: Identifying Priority Sites for Invasive Plant Management , Daniel Kovar, Conservation Biologist, Great Parks of Hamilton County |
| 12:30 - 1:15pm | Lunch – provided if you register in advance |
| 1:20 - 1:30pm | Drive to South Farm - park in Arts Center Lot |
| 1:30 - 3:30pm | Outdoor activities - 3 groups, 40 minutes at each site: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Native plants in the landscape - successes and challenges• Woods walk to see invasive plant/restoration research site; honeysuckle removal and other invasive species challenges• Walk to a transect to learn about our long-term monitoring program and methods for monitoring invasive species |

Visit our websites for more information at:

www.oipc.info

www.green-acres.org

www.greatparks.org