
Good Plants Gone Bad: Invasive Plants of Southeast Ohio

Washington State Community
College
Marietta Ohio

Wednesday, September 10, 2008

DAY SESSION

- 9:15 Registration and Morning Snack
- 10:00 Invasive Plants in Ohio
Jennifer Windus
President OIPC & Ohio Division of Wildlife
- 10:45 Break
- 11:00 Sending Tree-of-Heaven to Heaven
Doug Albaugh
Friends of Lower Muskingum River
- 11:45 Lunch
- 12:30 Using Natives: The New Trend
Cheryl Coon
Wayne National Forest and Athens County
Master Gardener
- 1:15 Pollinator and our Native Plants
Dr. Frank Porter
Porterbrook Native Plant Nursery.
- 1:30 Break
- 1:45 Panel Discussion:
Different Perspectives on Treating Non-native
Invasive Plants
Dan Mattheson, Townsend Chemicals
Terence Hanley, Ohio Division of Forestry;
Cheryl Coon, Wayne National Forest
Melanie Schori, Athens Stewardship Council
- 3:30 Getting it Done! Controlling Autumn Olive
Dr. Nicole Cavender, The Wilds
- 4:30 Wrap-up and have a safe journey home

EVENING SESSION

- 6:00 What are Invasive Species? Why Should We Care?
Marilyn Ort
Friends of Lower Muskingum River
- 6:30 Sending Tree-of-Heaven to Heaven
Doug Albaugh
Friends of Lower Muskingum River
- 7:00 Break
(snack provided by the Washington County Master Gardeners)
- 7:15 Going Native: The New Trend
Cheryl Coon
Wayne National Forest
- 7:45 Q&A with Panel
of Evening Speakers
- 8:00 Wrap-up and head home

