Good Plants Gone Bad: Invasive Plants of Southeast Ohio

Washington State Community College Marietta Ohio

Wednesday, September 10, 2008

9:15	SSION  Registration and Morning Snack
9.13	Registration and Worling Shack
10:00	Invasive Plants in Ohio
	Jennifer Windus
	President OIPC & Ohio Division of Wildlife
10:45	Break
11:00	Sending Tree-of-Heaven to Heaven
	Doug Albaugh
	Friends of Lower Muskingum River
11:45	Lunch
12:30	Using Natives: The New Trend
	Cheryl Coon
	Wayne National Forest and Athens County
	Master Gardener
1:15	Pollinator and our Native Plants
	Dr. Frank Porter
	Porterbrook Native Plant Nursery.
1:30	Break
1:45	Panel Discussion:
	Different Perspectives on Treating Non-native
	Invasive Plants
	Dan Mattheson, Townsend Chemicals
	Terence Hanley, Ohio Division of Forestry;
	Cheryl Coon, Wayne National Forest Melanie Schori, Athens Stewardship Council
	Metanie Schoff, Athens Stewardship Council
3:30	Getting it Done! Controlling Autumn Olive
	Dr. Nicole Cavender, The Wilds
4:30	Wrap-up and have a safe journey home

EVEN	ING SESSION
6:00	What are Invasive Species? Why Should We Care? Marilyn Ortt Friends of Lower Muskingum River
6:30	Sending Tree-of-Heaven to Heaven Doug Albaugh Friends of Lower Muskingum River
7:00	Break (snack provided by the Washington County Master Gardeners)
7:15	Going Native: The New Trend Cheryl Coon Wayne National Forest
7:45	Q&A with Panel of Evening Speakers
8:00	Wrap-up and head home

